GRAND MAX

Grand Max is slightly softer than Rivege and has a higher breaking strain per diameter. The range has been expanded to include sizes suitable for salmon, saltwater game fish and carp - where it has proven remarkably successful. Winner of the Total Fly Fisher award for best leader material, Grand Max knots easily and is found to be entirely dependable using standard knots.

GRAND MAX FX

Building on the continuing popularity of Grand Max and mirroring it in breaking strain per diameter, FX adds a little more stretch to the equation.

As suitable as Grand Max across all disciplines it is proving popular as a bridge between classic Grand Max and Soft Plus.

SOFT PLUS

Soft Plus takes double-structure fluorocarbon to the limit! The thinnest per pound fluorocarbon on the market its softer structure has found fans across many disciplines. As well as its use a trout leader, the low memory, high abrasion and UV resistance, longevity and fast sinking rate has proved popular with carp and match anglers as a mainline.

RIVERGE

100% fluorocarbon leader line - Riverge is slightly stiffer than Grand Max and is particularly suited to fishing with droppers. This greater rigidity also makes for an easier turnover on the cast. Fluorocarbon tippetts sink readily without treatment as they are heavier than nylon

REEL SOFT

One of the first lines to be manufactured specifically for mainline use, Reel Soft has very low memory coupled with outstanding abrasion resistance. The essential attributes of fluorocarbon come into their own with a mainline; less knot strength loss, no 40% loss of breaking strain (when compared to nylon) due to water absorption or UV contamination and faster sink rate.
